How Long Have You Worn Those Glasses?

Here is an important question for you. Many people continue the use of glasses that are no longer of benefit. A glass worn too long becomes a detriment rather than a help. It's a good plan to have an accurate examination of your eyes once every two years.

AH POI UP FOR HEARING

Alleged Burglar Faces Judge and Jury—Foster Case Pau.

Ah Poi, the alleged jewelry store burglar, is now under trial before a jury in Judge De Bolt's court, the full number of jurymen having been secured yesterday afternoon. Deputy Attorney General Milverton is conducting the case for the Territory, Carlos Long appearing for the defense. The main witness put on the stand yesterday was Chief of Detectives Taylor, who testified to the arrest of the prisoner and the circumstances which pointed him out to the police as the guilty man.

The crime for which Ah Poi is on trial is the burglary of the jewelry store of George Haffner, on Alakea street, on which same night, early in January last, there were one or two other burglaries, chief among which was the robbing of Faria's tailor shop on Hotel street. The prisoner, shortly after the burglary had been committed, sold a portion of the stolen jewelry to a Japanese jeweler on King street, near the junction with Beretania, who turned the plunder over to the police and laid a trap for Ah Poi. He walked into it the next night and was nabbed by Detective Taylor.

The arrest at that time attracted considerable attention, being the first arrest made for burglary for some time, although prior to the change in the police administration the city had been overrun with thieves. It was the first important arrest of the new police force.

LINDSAY LOSES APPEAL.

A decision was handed down by the Supreme Court yesterday in the appeal from the Fourth Circuit Court in Thomas W. Lindsay versus John Schlieff and Eben P. Low, in which Lindsay sued Schlieff for specific performance of a contract to convey for $2000 lots 10 and 11 at Waikaeo, Hawaii, Low being a defendant as a subsequent grantee with notice. The case is one in which the main business was confused by claims and counter claims for small amounts, principally the expenses of sending certain wireless messages in connection with the negotiations. The Supreme Court affirmed the decree of the Circuit Court in dismissing the bill, but does so without prejudice to the plaintiff's right to bring a further action at law for breach of contract.

SICK JUROR DELAYS TRIAL.

The illness of Juror Fred Waldron, one of the twelve hearing the evidence in the damage suit of Amasiu versus Mahuka, in Judge Lindsay's court, has resulted in that case being put over until Friday. It had been expected that the case would have gone to the jury yesterday morning.

HEAVY DAMAGES GRANTED.

Judgment was rendered yesterday for the plaintiff in the damage suit of Yong Kwong Tat against Lee Chu for $2400 and all costs. R. W. Breckons and W. W. Thayer represented the plaintiff in this case, Magoon & Lightfoot defending.

CASES SUBMITTED ON BRIEFS.

The case of J. F. Hamburg, trustee, versus Wong Kwai, exceptions from Circuit Court, First Circuit, was submitted on briefs yesterday in the Supreme Court. Thompson & Clemons for plaintiff-appellee, C. W. Ashford for defendant-appellee.

Briefs were submitted in the Supreme Court case yesterday in the matter of the estate of George Galbraith, deceased, an appeal from a finding of the Circuit Court. Smith & Lewis and C. H. Olson for executors-appellants, Holmes & Stanley and Ballou & Marx for the heirs and trustee-appellees. WANTS SUPREME COURT PRACTICE.

A petition was filed with the Supreme Court yesterday by Collin Campbell asking that a commission be appointed to enquire into his qualifications to appear before that body as an attorney. Attorneys Jno. W. Cathcart and Frank E. Thompson are sponsors for his good moral character.

DIVORCE ASKED FOR.

A libel for divorce was filed yesterday by Georgine Augusta Teixeira against her husband Vincent D'O. Teixeira. The couple were married in Honolulu in 1893 and have one child, now twelve years old. In 1894 the husband deserted his family and has not since provided for them, according to the libel.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Robinson delivered judgment yesterday in the case of the Hawaiian Hardware Company versus Koolau Kalkinahaole for $719.99, the amount due for goods sold.

A stipulation was filed in the Circuit Court yesterday that if Jonah K. Kalamianale would pay $250 to the Territorial Hotel Company before the case was called against him the matter would be called off.

"MAKE HAY WHILE THE SUN SHINES."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so likely to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cramp colic may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.

The court handed down a written opinion yesterday in the case of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., vs. J. M. Monarrat et al. An oral decision was rendered in this case last Friday confirming the decree appealed from.
